

XM Traffic and Weather has quickly become an invaluable service to me. Finding reliable sources for just traffic and weather without inane or arcane content is nearly impossible without the XM service. I see no way that allowing the NAB to write policy that benefits only their memebbers can possibly be in the public interest. I strongly encourage you to reject the NAB petition 04-160.